

WEBINAR REMINDER | March 22 and 25, 2021

Working with Medicare: Medicare 101 and 201

Join us for a two-part Integrated Care Resource Center (ICRC) Working with Medicare webinar on Medicare 101 and 201 to be held on March 22 and 25, 2021.

These webinars will provide an overview of Medicare benefits, how Medicare and Medicaid benefits overlap and interact for dually eligible individuals, and steps that states can take to improve care for vulnerable dually eligible populations. The webinars will be especially helpful to state staff who are new to or seek a refresher on Medicare.

Webinar 1: Medicare 101: An Introduction to Medicare Benefits and the Roles of Medicare and Medicaid in Serving Dually Eligible Individuals

March 22, 12:30-2:00 pm ET

Learning Objectives: By the end of this presentation, attendees should be able to describe:

- Who dually eligible individuals are and why coordination of Medicare and Medicaid benefits is important for this population;
- The benefits that Medicare covers and Medicare coverage options;
- Examples of how certain Medicare and Medicaid benefits overlap; and
- When Medicaid might be the primary payer for certain benefits that are covered by both Medicare and Medicaid.
